1: What are digital certificates used for and who issues them?

2: What is a digital signature and what are its main properties?

3: Why is WEP not considered as a good security solution for WLANs and what are the main improvements of more recent standards (namely 802.11X and 802.11i)?